WHEN the Army team triumphed at the U.S. Armed Forces Women's Soccer Championship, sharp shooter Patti Bielling was on hand with her camera to capture the decisive moments. The tournament was held in September at Fort Eustis, Va., where Bielling works as a media-relations specialist.

Team member Jennifer Barcomb takes the opportunity of halftime to ice her ankle and apply powder.

Army goalkeeper Krista Bonino dives for a save during practice.

Army's Mary Ashworth heads the ball as members of the Air Force team close in.

Shawna Walker moves to protect the ball in the face of an Air Force player's attack.
